

How do we Doccle?

Doccle is an innovative online digital solution where end users can connect once with their suppliers and do their administration one click, online and mobile. Today Doccle is an energetic and dynamic scale up that already works with leading companies as customers as well as partners. The foundations are firmly anchored.

We are constantly on the lookout for passionate colleagues who want to grow our organization.

UI/UX Designer

We are currently looking for a motivated person to join our team as a hands-on UI/UX Designer.

What you will do:

You will tackle simple and complex usability problems. We're looking for a designer who can see beyond the obvious and can execute on a vision for what modern user experience could become/ look like. You'll be performing research, creating wireframes and user flows, designing and testing. We have native mobile apps, Android and iOS, a web app and a plugin. You'll be working side by side with Product Owners and our cross-functional engineering team.

Who you are:

- You are
 - o A true team-player
 - o A natural born communicator
 - o Passionate about solving complex design challenges
 - o Self-organized
 - o Fluent in English

- You have:
 - o Experience in a similar position
 - o The ability to design end-to-end from discovery to execution, lo-fi & hi-fi prototyping skills
 - o Excellent communication skills and experience collaborating closely with PMs, developers, and other team members
 - o The ability to handle an already existing Design System but show no fear in improving it further
 - o Confidence in gathering user requirements from multiple sources and managing feedback loops
 - o Experience working with tools such as Sketch and Invision

Do you recognize yourself in this description? Don't hesitate to contact us!

Please, submit your CV in English, ideally with a portfolio featuring examples of a product that you can share with us (Online or PDF).

What we offer:

- A chance to be a part of an innovative, rapidly expanding team
- A competitive salary with extralegal benefits
